

'The kingdom of Christ Jesus is not of this world, but it must be active in this world, and human souls must be the tools of the kingdom which is not of this world.' Rudolf Steiner, 1917

'When one starts looking at the world as an object, and not as a living entity, linked in some mysterious way with one's soul, then all one's fellow human beings gradually become objects, so that one comes to finally feel completely alone. One finds oneself in total loneliness in the cosmos. Yet the suffering brought about by the loneliness clears the way for the religious rebirth, which, in turn, makes the world a living entity. One starts to realize that one is fully responsible for the destiny of that living entity, and thus one's soul leaves its solitary confinement.'

Have You Been Thinking about Becoming a Member of the Christian Community?
The single requirement to becoming a member is to become certain that one wants to help assure that the healing power of Christ can flow into the world in the particular way that the sacraments of The Christian Community make possible.
